

PRAYER FROM THE HEART 3—MATTHEW 6:13

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

- Why do you think Jesus ends his prayer talking about “temptation” and “evil”?
- How does this verse play out in corporate (church) life together? In other words, why do we pray for God to lead “us” away from temptation and deliver “us” from evil?
- How are we to understand “lead us not into temptation”? Can that imply that God somehow “causes” sin? Why or why not?
- What are some specific ways that you can pray for your church family (and/or immediate family) this week about being led away from temptation and being delivered from evil? What specifically might this look like for Calvary Bible Church?
- SERMON QUESTION: What does authentic kingdom prayer look like?

NEW KINGDOM LIVING

JESUS' LIFE IN OURS

FAMILY QUESTIONS

- Why does the psalmist say “lead us not” into temptation? Does that mean God can or does lead us into temptation? Why or why not?
- How can we pray for one another (as a family/small group/friends) to be delivered from evil?
- Why do you think Jesus ends the prayer this way? How would you have ended it? Why is this the last topic Jesus deals with in his model prayer for his disciples?
